The Buckhead Community Bank Sponsors “Music, Mummies & Martinis” Series at the Atlanta Civic Center

(Atlanta, GA) February 23, 2009 – The Buckhead Community Bank announced today that it will sponsor the latest part of the “Music, Mummies and Martinis” series with an exhibition of Tutankhamun the Golden King and The Great Pharaohs. “Music, Mummies and Martinis” will be held on March 21, 2009, from 7p.m. to midnight at the Atlanta Civic Center.

“We’ve forged a great partnership with the Atlanta Civic Center and The National Multiple Sclerosis Society of Georgia,” says Donna L. Kain, President of Private and Entrepreneurial Banking at The Buckhead Community Bank. “This event is a perfect fit for us because we are able to host our clients and show them how much we appreciate them. Plus, this is a cultural treat for Atlanta.”

With over 120 objects, the exhibit will showcase artifacts from the tomb of Tutankhamun and other ancient Egyptian rulers. Guests will enjoy food and martinis by A Legendary Event and music from Party Nation. The evening will also feature a live and silent auction with prize giveaways that include a travel package, original works of art, culinary experiences and more. All proceeds will go to the National Multiple Sclerosis Society of Georgia.

“We are thrilled by the opportunity to support the arts in Atlanta,” Kain says. “Our guests can enjoy a spectacular evening, and it is a great opportunity for us to be associated with the energetic and creative team at the Atlanta Civic Center. The benefit is two-fold.”
